Subject: AB 2088 (Bonta, Carrillo, Chiu, Gonzalez, Kalra, Santiago, Stone, Ting, Wicks) Support

Dear Assemblymember Bonta:

I am writing to you on behalf of Peace and Freedom Party of California which first qualified for the ballot over 50 years ago in January 1968. Since our beginning, we have advocated that the rich and their corporations pay their fair share. Our campaign posters in 1970 read "Tax the Rich". So, of course we support AB 2088.

While Peace and Freedom Party supports AB 2088, we noticed that directly held worldwide real estate and related liabilities are excluded. This may change the ways in which real estate controlled by wealthy individuals is owned and financed. More real estate may be directly held and more borrowing related to real estate may not appear to be.

Please, vote yes on AB 2088.

Thank you for your consideration. If you or a member of your staff would like to discuss any of these notations, please contact me at (916) 422-5395 or CTWeberVoters@att.net.

Sincerely,

C. T. Weber
